WADI AL NASMAT

*The development of a mare family:
Al Ilah Taghira
(Emiratus B x Tamria Bint Thamam)*

■ by Alicia Midgett

I happened upon a picture of Taghira when she was a filly at Al Ilah stud in Germany and fell in love. The offspring of Emiratus B were amazing, and Taghira had a fabulous and strong damline with heavy El Thay breeding. I bought Taghira and she would remain in Europe for 6 years being bred to European stallions that were inspiring to me and not available in the USA. My dream was to breed Taghira to Classic Mansour, but while I was waiting for her to be of breeding age, he passed away. Meike Hopfner had a very special and under recognized son of his, Esfahan Manaseer, that had a handful of very impressive foals and I decided he was the perfect choice for Taghira. The next year Taghira had an outstanding filly, Nasmat Mussah from this cross. Taghira was then bred to SM Bariq, and produced a nice colt, Nasmat Ibn Bariq who lives in Europe. Finally I bred Taghira to NK Nabhan, who I got to meet at a presentation at Dr. Nagel in 2018 and was amazed by his presence and type. I brought Taghira back to the states with her foal in utero. Nasmat Nemty was born in June of 2021 and we couldn't be happier with him as the next stallion and step in our program.

This mare family is really working well with our stallion Jamal Al Rashediah (Jamil Al Rayyan x Samaa Al Rashediah by NK Qaswarah). Taghira now has a filly by her side from him, Nasmat Takiyah, and her daughter Mussah has a nice son, Nasmat Nekheny and now daughter Nasmat Moosh, from this cross. We are excited to see what the future holds for this interesting family. □
